

Samuel Njogu Solicitor/Senior Associate/Immigration

Samuel is a UK-qualified solicitor specialising in Immigration Law. He has over 10 years' experience dealing with all aspects of immigration law from dealing with corporate and business application to private immigration cases – including entrepreneurs, high net worth individuals and sole proprietors.

Samuel works with a wide range of corporate clients, from small & medium sized businesses and start-ups to large multi-national organisations. He advises them on areas such as:

- Sponsor licence applications
- All applications under the points-based system (PBS), including Tier 1 investor and entrepreneur, Tier 2 General and ICT and Tier 5
- Applications for Representative of an Overseas Business visa
- Applications for settlement, variations of leave, extension & renewals, entry clearance, etc.

He also provides guidance to employers on complying with their sponsorship duties, especially under Tier 2 and Tier 5 of the PBS. He acts as a Level 1 user for organisations to assist with assigning certificates of sponsorship, updating changes of circumstances, complying with sponsor reporting duties, including acting as the Key Contact to liaise with the Home Office on behalf of clients.

Samuel has substantial experience of successfully representing clients at both the First Tier and Upper Tier Tribunal and has worked on cases heard at the Court of Appeal and the UK Supreme Court. He also has a wealth of experience dealing with Human Rights cases, nationality and applications under the European Union laws and regulations. He thrives on keeping up to date with any developments in Immigration Law and he is dedicated to fulfilling his client's needs.
